Background

The Leslie Sell Charitable Trust was set up in May 1969 by the late Leslie Sell. Peter Varga was a Hungarian refugee who met Leslie Sell through the Scout Movement in 1956. This led to Leslie Sell supporting Peter to gain British nationality and then giving him a home. As a mark of thanks, Peter changed his name to Sell and became a Trustee and later Chair of the Leslie Sell Charitable Trust. He died in 2007 and the Peter Sell Annual Award is dedicated to him.

The Award widens engagement and involvement in the Scout and Girl Guides associations.
